

ROUND ROCK

Characteristics of Academies:

- Smaller groups for a sense of belonging and for interdisciplinary teaming
- Focus on students’ interests and aptitudes
- Clear and realistic focus on career pathways – Achieve Texas
- Heightened awareness of college and career options
- Partnering with businesses to develop a qualified workforce
- Teacher teams working cooperatively to make the curriculum relevant to the learning and tie it to career pathways

2007-2008 Academies	2008-2009 Academies
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Round Rock High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Business and Finance Academy – Professional Educator Academy • McNeil High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Engineering Academy – Health Science Academy • Stony Point High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Information Technology Academy – Science and Medicine Academy • Westwood High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Fine Arts Academy – International Baccalaureate Academy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Round Rock High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – Professional Educator Academy • McNeil High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Engineering Academy – Health Science Academy • Stony Point High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – International Baccalaureate Academy – Information Technology Academy – Science and Medicine Academy • Westwood High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Fine Arts Academy – International Baccalaureate Academy

2009-2010 Academies	2010-2011 Academies
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Round Rock High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – Human Services Academy – STEM Academy • McNeil High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – STEM Academy – Health Science Academy – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy • Stony Point High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – STEM Academy – Health Science Academy • Westwood High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Fine Arts Academy – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – STEM Academy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Round Rock High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Law, Safety, and Security Academy – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – Human Services Academy – STEM Academy • McNeil High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Law, Safety, and Security Academy – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – Health Science Academy – STEM Academy • Stony Point High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Law, Safety, and Security Academy – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – Health Science Academy – STEM Academy • Westwood High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Law, Safety, and Security Academy – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – Fine Arts Academy – STEM Academy • Cedar Ridge High School <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – STEM Academy – Business, Finance, and Marketing Academy – Human Services Academy – Law, Safety, and Security Academy

Academy Enrichment Activities:

Each academy will partner with business and industry to facilitate five to seven enrichment activities for students during the school year. These activities can take place during the school day, after school, or on Saturdays. The purpose and intent of these activities is to ensure that students have relevant and meaningful experiences in the academy field of their choice that will assist them in making future plans for higher education and/or going into the workforce after high school.